

LSTA-funded projects for State Fiscal Year 2012

Awards for FY2012 include:

ABBE Regional Library System	Job Seeker Services	$16,250
AHJ Regional Library System	Expanding Technology to Rural Bookmobile Stops	$7,188
Beaufort County Library	One Book - One Beaufort County	$18,194
Berkeley County Library	Mobile Literacy Lab	$50,000
Charleston County Library	Early Literacy: Seeds for Success	$20,000
Cherokee County Library	Technology Tune-Up	$25,500
Florence County Library	Virtual Museum	$37,422
Georgetown County Library	Small Business Success for Owners and Job Seekers	$27,500
Lancaster County Library	Computer Training for Workforce Skills	$15,232
Oconee County Library	Hispanic Outreach for Library Services	$27,302
Williamsburg County Library	Finding Jobs for Williamsburg County	$5,500

Awards of LSTA funding have also been made to support the South Carolina Literary Arts Partnership (The Humanities Council^{SC}) and the South Carolina Digital Library (University of South Carolina Libraries). Additional small grants are being made for conference attendance, tuition assistance for library school students, and small planning projects.

For more information about LSTA grant funding administered by the South Carolina State Library, please contact Kathy Sheppard, Library Development Consultant, at ksheppard@statelibrary.sc.gov or 803-734-8653.

south carolina
STATE LIBRARY