

Thanks A Billion,
South Carolina!

Endowed Chairs Program

The Endowed Chairs Program awards lottery funds to South Carolina's three research universities: Clemson University, the University of South Carolina, and the Medical University of South Carolina based upon these institutions raising private, matching funds. The program's goal is to attract world-class researchers whose research will create the highly skilled jobs necessary to meet the economic challenges of the twenty-first century.

K-12 Program Information

K-12 Appropriations To Date*

First Steps

First Steps to School Readiness (First Steps) is a statewide education initiative created in 1999 to help prepare kindergarten-age children for the first grade. The program is a joint public/private partnership that enables individual communities to address the unmet needs of young children and their families.

K-5 Academic Enhancement Programs

The K-5 enhancement funds support efforts to improve teaching and student achievement in kindergarten through grade five (K-5) in reading, mathematics, social studies, and science.

*Dollar figures for all charts are in millions and incorporate the period from January 7, 2002-June 30, 2006. Figures are accurate as of December 13, 2005.

Every school district in South Carolina receives lottery money based upon a formula set by the Legislature. For a more detailed analysis of the amount of money that your local school district receives, please visit our website at www.sceducationlottery.com.

Grades 6-8

Since school year 2004-05, lottery funds have been appropriated toward improving teacher and student achievement in grades six through eight in reading, mathematics, social studies, and science.

School Buses

Lottery funds have purchased more than 400 school buses. Lottery money also repairs buses currently in service.

Governor's School for the Arts & Humanities

One million dollars has been appropriated to the South Carolina Governor's School for the Arts and Humanities in Greenville that affords artistically-gifted students the opportunity to refine and expand their skills. Students receive professional training in drama, creative writing, dance, visual arts, and music, in addition to other normal academic requirements.

Are there additional educational programs that receive lottery funds?

Other Appropriations To Date*

County Libraries

County libraries have been appropriated $8.3 million to date, based upon a formula set by the General Assembly.

Gambling Addiction Services

SCEL strongly encourages people to "play responsibly." To this end, $2 million has been appropriated to gambling addiction treatment programs. Citizens who need help can call a toll-free number (877-452-5155) for assistance.

Educational Television Network (ETV)

South Carolina's Educational Television Network has been awarded nearly $20 million, primarily to upgrade to digital technology.

Are there websites available for additional information?

The ABCs of the South Carolina Education Lottery

Why does South Carolina have a Lottery?

In 2000, the citizens of South Carolina voted to amend the Constitution permitting a state-run lottery. As a result of this action, the General Assembly established the South Carolina Education Lottery (SCEL) to enhance the educational opportunities for the people of the Palmetto State.

Who decides which programs are funded?

Each year the Legislature, in concert with the Governor, decides which educational programs are funded by lottery dollars.

How many dollars have been appropriated to date?

Since the start of the Lottery in January of 2002, the Legislature has appropriated more than $1.15 billion through fiscal year 2005-06.
